

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) – Walyalup Fremantle Arts Centre Print Award

1. Who can enter the Walyalup Fremantle Arts Centre Print Award 2027?

The award is open to all artists living and working within Australia, aged 16 or older as of January 1, 2025.

2. How many artworks can I submit?

Each artist is invited to submit only one artwork for the competition.

3. What are the requirements for the artwork?

The artwork must be created using any printing process and must be the submitting artist's original work, completed no earlier than January 1, 2025. Works in multiple parts are acceptable, but they must be considered as a single artwork.

4. How should I submit my entry?

Entries must be submitted online through the official submission portal on the Walyalup Fremantle Arts Centre website. Emailed submissions will not be accepted. You will be required to upload up to three digital images of your artwork in JPEG format. Each image should be labelled with your surname, first name, and image number (e.g., Surname_FirstName_1).

5. What is the entry fee?

The entry fee is $50.00 (inc. GST), and it is non-refundable.

6. What do I need to submit along with my images?

Along with your images, you must submit a short biography (100 words), artist statement (100 words), as well as a details of your artwork, including installation requirement (150 words). Do not include any other materials with your submission.

7. What is the deadline for submissions?

The deadline for submissions is 5pm AWST on Monday January 11, 2027

8. How will the artworks be selected?

A panel of industry professionals will judge all entries. All entrants will be notified of the outcome of the selection process by March 3, 2027.

9. If selected, when must I deliver my artwork?

Selected works must be delivered to Walyalup Fremantle Arts Centre by 5pm on Monday, March 22, 2027. The work must be received in full and on time to be eligible for exhibition and prize selection.

10. Who covers the cost of freight for the artwork?

Artists are responsible for the cost of shipping their artwork to the Walyalup Fremantle Arts Centre. Walyalup Fremantle Arts Centre is responsible for freighting the work back to artists. Any extraordinary freighting requirements may be required to be covered by the artist.

11. Is my artwork insured during the exhibition?

Yes, all selected artworks will be fully insured while in the keeping of the Walyalup Fremantle Arts Centre until Monday, August 9, 2027.

12. Can I sell my artwork?

Yes, all exhibited works must be available for sale. A 35% commission (plus GST) will apply to all sold works. Please consider your sale price carefully. The amount entered on your online entry form will be the artwork's sale price for the duration of the exhibition and must include GST. If you require specific guidance, please make contact with the Curatorial & Collections Team.

13. Will my artwork be used for publicity?

Yes, images of selected artworks will be used for promotional purposes, including on the Walyalup Fremantle Arts Centre website, social media, and in marketing materials. All selected artists will be asked for permission to use these images for up to five years.

14. When will the winners be announced?

The winners will be announced at the opening of the exhibition on Thursday, April 29, 2027.

15. When does the exhibition close?

The exhibition will close at 5pm on Sunday, August 1, 2027.

16. How do I make my payment?

The entry fee is paid online via the eWAY payment system. You will be redirected to the payment page after completing your submission form.

17. Can I withdraw my submission after entering?

Once submitted, entries are non-refundable, and the entry fee cannot be refunded. You may withdraw your entry, by notifying the Arts Centre team in writing.

18. What if I live locally, can I collect my artwork in person?

Yes, local entrants are encouraged to collect their unsold artwork from the Walyalup Fremantle Arts Centre after the exhibition closes - all works must be claimed by Monday, August 9, 2027.

19. If I work for City of Fremantle, can I apply?

Casual staff are allowed to apply, however all Permanent or Permanent Part-Time employees of the City of Fremantle are not eligible to apply.

These FAQs should provide a quick guide for any potential entrants.
